Cavendish Hotel

We have pleasure in offering the Cavendish Hotel to our customers once again this year as it has proved very popular during the last few years. This hotel is situated on the seafront with spectacular sea views overlooking the bay. The town centre is only a short walk from the hotel. Although there is a lift in the hotel some steps are unavoidable. There are steps to the main entrance of the hotel.

Excursions

We will visit the city of Truro with its elegant Georgian town houses and three spired cathedral. Truro is a major shopping centre with small independent shops as well as department stores, high street names and a regular farmers' market.

We also visit Penzance which has the only promenade in Cornwall and it is a rather lengthy one, with wonderful views. Penzance harbour is small but has a busy atmosphere and a mix of vessels from fishing boats to visiting yachts. There is also a good selection of shops in the town centre. On our way to Penzance we will pass through Marazion where you can view St. Michael's Mount.
