

Isle of Wight

Sandown has always been a favourite with those looking for a real seaside holiday. Yet, whilst notable for all the familiar resort attractions, it remains unspoilt, set in a sweeping bay with spectacular views of Culver Cliffs to the north and the soaring downs above Shanklin to the south. A stroll along Sandown's High Street will reveal a range of cafes, restaurants and individually owned shops. With its magnificent beach of fine golden sand, Sandown is a favourite for everyone

Royal Pier Hotel

The Royal Pier Hotel offers excellent value for money and once again we are pleased to include it in our brochure for 2009. The Royal Pier Hotel occupies an excellent position on the seafront at Sandown and offers comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities. The hotel has an indoor heated swimming pool. There is a lift to all floors.

Marina Bay Hotel

We are pleased to offer this hotel once again this year as it proved very popular with our customers in the past. The Marina Bay Hotel occupies an excellent position on the promenade with superb sea views. This is a family run hotel with a friendly atmosphere offering comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities. The restaurant offers a good choice of menu. The hotel does not have a lift but some ground floor rooms are available on request.

Excursions

Excursions will include a visit to some of the following:

We will visit Newport which is the capital of the island with its modern shopping centre and popular outdoor market. We then continue onto Godshill the most picturesque village on the Isle of Wight where you can treat yourselves to the best selection of cream cakes you have ever seen.

Cowes which is a mecca for yachtsmen and hosts many international events. The narrow pedestrianised high street is bursting with interesting boutiques, antique shops and lively pubs.

Ryde which is the largest town on the Island with its esplanade, beautiful gardens, boating lake and shops.

Shanklin which is one of the best known resorts on the Island. At the south end of the High Street, at the head of Shanklin Chine, is the Old Village with its thatched whitewashed cottages and the thatched Crab Inn. You will also find Rylstone Gardens, a showpiece garden and lawns, with attractive views of the beach.
