

Llandudno

Few visitors would begrudge its title 'Queen of the Welsh Resorts', for there is undeniably something regal and gracious about the sweep of the bay enclosed by its headlands of Great Orme and Little Orme. The seafront of hotels and guest houses, neatly painted and well-kept, is a classic of its kind and surely worthy of preservation.

Merrion Hotel

We are pleased to offer the Merrion Hotel to our customers once again this year as it has been one of our most popular hotels for many years. Ideally situated on the promenade the Merrion Hotel offers spectacular views of the bay. The hotel offers comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities. This friendly family run hotel has been a favourite with our customers notably for its cuisine - the dessert trolley being the main talking point of the week. There is a lift to all floors.

Hydro Hotel

We would like to offer the Hydro Hotel to our customers once again this year due to the success in 2008. Ideally situated on the seafront overlooking Llandudno Bay, the Hydro Hotel offers comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities. There is a large ballroom with entertainment every night and a sun lounge where you can sit and relax and enjoy the superb views. The hotel does have a lift but there are some steps between floors which are unavoidable. There are also steps to the main entrance and also an external lift for disabled passengers to reception.

Marlborough Hotel

We are pleased to offer the Marlborough Hotel to our customers for the first time this year. The hotel is in one of the most enviable positions on the corner of the promenade opposite the pier. The hotel offers comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities, a warm friendly atmosphere and a lift to all floors.

Regency Royal Hotel

We are pleased to offer the Regency Royal Hotel to our customers for the first time this year. This lovely 3* hotel has new owners and has recently undergone major refurbishment. The hotel occupies a prime position on the seafront and only a short level walk to the town centre. The hotel offers comfortable en-suite accommodation with colour television and tea/coffee making facilities. The hotel has a lift to all floors.

Excursions

We will visit Porthmadog which stands on an inlet of Tremadog Bay and which was reclaimed from the sea in the early part of the 19th century. The town was once a flourishing port, its prosperity built on the slate trade. It is now a popular holiday centre with a busy harbour and a good selection of shops.

We travel along the coast and cross the Menai Straits to the beautiful island of Anglesey. Our first stop will be at the village with the famous long name, a 58 letter tongue twister usually shortened to Llanfair P.G. We continue to Beaumaris the principal town on Anglesey. The superb moated castle was built by Edward I in 1295. With its imposing gate-house and great round towers it is one of the best-known features on the island.
